CL 27: $47,390 to $77,030

CL 28: $56,797 to $92,336

Position Overview:

The U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office for the Eastern District of Arkansas is seeking applications for a U.S. Probation Officer for the Eastern District of Arkansas. This mission critical position will conduct pre-bail investigations, pre-sentence investigations, supervise pretrial defendants, and post-conviction offenders. The U.S. Probation Officer provides instructions and guidance to defendants and offenders and provides overall oversight of defendants and offenders to ensure compliance with court imposed conditions, directives, or guidelines. Irregular working hours, including weekend work, may be required to support the Court and defendants and offenders. In-state and out-of-state travel is required. Potential to hire one (1) or more officers within this recruitment.

Opening Date: Tuesday, May 31, 2016

Closing Date: Friday, June 17, 2016 (or until filled*)

*Preference will be given to applications submitted by Friday, June 17, 2016.

Position Location: There are three offices within the Eastern District of Arkansas: Little Rock, Jonesboro and Pine Bluff.

The U.S. Probation Office for the Eastern District of Arkansas offers some distinct advantages:

- A collegial bench that fully supports the mission of the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office;

-The Brookings Institution Metro Monitor ranks Little Rock and its surrounding communities the fourth strongest economy in America, while the Wall Street Journal ranks it the sixth best real estate market; and

- According to Forbes.com, the region is ranked in the top 20 as best “Bank-for-the-Buck” city.

Education and Professional Work Experience Requirements:

All probation or pretrial services officer positions require completion of a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in a field of academic study, such as criminal justice, criminology, psychology, counseling, social work/sociology, human relations, or business or public administration, which provides evidence of the capacity to understand and apply the legal requirements and human relations skills involved in the position. An official transcript is required from the candidate who is recommended for hire. The specialized experience requirements for each classification level are as follows:

United States Probation Officer

Job Announcement Number: 2016-06

CL 27: A minimum of two years of specialized experience, including at least one year equivalent to work at the CL-25 level or the completion of a master's degree in a field of study closely related to the position, or Juris Doctor (JD) degree to qualify at the CL 27 level.

CL 28: A minimum of two year of specialized experience, including at least one year equivalent to work at the CL-27 level to qualify at the CL 28 level.

Specialized Experience: Progressively responsible experience, gained after completion of a bachelor's degree, in such fields as probation, pretrial services, parole, corrections, criminal investigations, or work in substance/addiction treatment is required. Experience as a police, custodial, or security officer, other than any criminal investigative experience, is not creditable. Experience in fields such as education guidance counselor, social worker, caseworker, psychologist, substance abuse specialist, and correctional researcher may constitute a portion of the specialized experience.

Educational Substitutions: Completion of one academic year (30 semester or 45 quarter hours), of graduate work in a field of study closely related to the position equates to one year of specialized experience. Completion of a master's degree in a field of study closely related to the position, or a Juris Doctor (JD) degree, equates to two years of specialized experience.

Starting salaries depend on education and experience. At the discretion of the Chief U.S. Probation Officer, and based on experience and performance, promotional potential is possible within these ranges without further competition.

Preferred Skills and Qualifications:

Completion of an advanced degree from an accredited university is preferred. Additional preferred skills include fluency in a foreign language, proficiency in Microsoft Office, licensure or certification in a behavior science (LSMSW, CADAC, LPC, etc.) or any other skills/licensures that are relevant to the duties of a probation officer.

Background Investigation and Medical Standards:

First-time appointees to positions covered under law enforcement officer retirement provisions cannot have reached his or her thirty-seventh (37th) birthday at the time of the appointment. Applicants age 37 or over who have previous law enforcement officer experience under Civil Service Retirement System or the Federal Employees' Retirement System and who have either a subsequent break in service or intervening service in a non-law enforcement officer position may have their previous law enforcement experience subtracted from their age to determine whether they meet the maximum age requirement. A background investigation, a credit check, a pre-employment medical examination, and drug screen are required, except for currently employed probation officers and assistants who transfer to this district. Upon successful completion of the preliminary review, the selectee may then be provisionally appointed, pending a suitability determination by the court. Continued employment will be contingent to successful completion of the OPM investigation. In addition, the incumbent will be subject to ongoing random drug screening and updated background investigations every five years.

The medical requirements for an officer are derived from the medical guidelines for officer and officer assistant candidates.
